

BLUE WATER GROUP

Founded in 1974, the Blue Water Group is Atlantic Canada's largest ship supplier and Canada's largest independent distributor of Mobil branded lubricants. In addition, the Blue Water Group has provided innovative Supply Chain and warehouse management plus Integrated Logistics services specializing in marine and industrial supplies since 2002.

The Blue Water Group is an ISO 9001:2015 registered company and we utilize a wide variety of local and worldwide suppliers throughout our business lines to offer quality products to our customers. We have many long-term customers who use our services and partner with us because we "make it happen".

By aligning the Blue Water Group with quality products and quality companies such as Imperial Oil, ExxonMobil and Unitor Chemicals, we are able to provide a premium choice for your lubricants, supply chain, logistics and ship chandlery requirements. With our customer driven, solutions focused offer, we will do everything within our influence to ensure that our customers are provided with the best product and services in a timely and professional manner.

Service and integrity has helped the Blue Water Group achieve success over the decades and it is important for all of our employees to conduct themselves in the best interests of both the Blue Water Group and our customer base. We have taken steps to broaden our product offering to our customers by adding value added services such as freight forwarding, sufferance warehousing, yard space and international waste disposal.
